President's Message

Hello Everyone, there are several big events coming up soon and lots of opportunity for you to volunteer.

you haven't painted that special one you would like to show, now is the time to start taking action. The months go by quickly, step up to the challenge.

We always look forward to your attendance.

See you in August,
Shirlee Lind Pres.

Keep in mind the Sept. 28th & 29th annual Art Show coming up. I would suggest you start going through your paintings (I'm sure we all have several stored away) that you would like to display and possibly sell. Or perhaps

Your help is always appreciated. Until then keep those beautiful paintings flowing and learn new techniques from our workshops coming up !

The Guild looks for opportunities to show our members' art. If you have a public facility and would like some fine art on your walls, let us know and we will work with you to provide art on a rotating schedule.

Why show your art?

Beyond any benefit you might see as an artist the act of viewing art can have its own. According to the rubinmuseum.org "It is believed across all traditions of Tibetan Buddhism that the act of viewing artworks can be advantageous to one's spiritual and physical wellbeing."

Entry forms and details are available on the website and sent to members with newsletter

From Pam Davis: Gallery wrap canvas needs no frame but be sure to paint the edges of the board. No glass on oil paintings. Dust paper on the back needs slits to allow the painting to breath. This paper cover is essential if there are paint smudges showing on the back of the canvas as it can be seen from the other side of our frames.

Be sure to put your business card & a designed card with the painting information, artist & the price on the back of the frame

We endeavor to provide a comfortable environment in which artists can learn and benefit from each other's skills, knowledge, and methods.

Attending our meetings is a great way to meet fellow artists – plus you can bring a painting or two and have a friendly critique of your art work. This makes for a great learning experience! Monthly demos are given by some of the best Portland area artists and should not be missed. Questions are encouraged during the demos. They are a great learning experience.

Classes and Workshops

In addition to the FREE demos given at our monthly meetings we also provide educational workshops throughout the year with a reduced tuition to NCAG members.

Locations to be announced prior to event. See our calendar here
