Show Highlights

Our Art Show was discussed and Shawn will put out a separate mailing to all. There were 26 members, 76 paintings, entered into the competition; seems kind of low when you consider all the wonderful paintings that are critiqued at our meetings. I'm sure the next Art Show Chairmen will be fielding suggestions about what we can do to increase participation next year. We had a good turnout for our Art Show this year. Many new community members found us in September THANKS to the tireless efforts of Kathy Conrad, who used her contacts to get the word out and bring the community to our show.

President's Message

Hello Everyone,

A big thank you goes out to Roxanne Clingman Colyer for helping us understand the importance of making good paintings at our October meeting. Our members appreciated the information she shared with all of us and found it informative. Hopefully, she will consider judging our 2019 Art Show.

Yes, we have to say so long to summer and face winter, but before we do, there should be plenty of time to plan fall activities. Take time to go outdoors to capture the colorful beauty October has to offer, keeping in mind, our fall scene in-house competition for the November meeting.

Just a reminder- to become a better artist take advantage of the workshops coming up and share your accomplishments with every member of our guild.

Please remember to mention our wonderful guild to all the fellow artists you come in contact with to help build a stronger guild for the future and to appreciate what it has to offer.

See you next month,
Shirlee Lind, President

Workshops are inspirational, a great value and learning resource. Access to other artists and differing views expands our thinking.

Why show your art?

Beyond any benefit you might see as an artist the act of viewing art can have its own impact. According to the rubinmuseum.org "It is believed across all traditions of Tibetan Buddhism that the act of viewing artworks can be advantageous to one's spiritual and physical wellbeing." s

Please double check at home in case you inadvertently left the meeting wearing it. If you’re a new member and not seen yours yet, your old one needs replacing or it’s now missing you can contact or email Shawn Van Doren. Shawn is making tags at this time and happy to help resolve your issue. Please be sure to return your nametag to the holder before leaving the meeting. If the nametag holder has already left, hand it to one of the board members for safekeeping.

Did you know...

Many people using Meals on Wheels live an isolated life. They can’t leave home, don’t have visitors and the cards we’re making may be their only Holiday Cheer. Thanks for participating.

Agenda Last meeting our President tried something new! She switched up the order of business at our meeting, having refreshments first. Many members liked it so, fair warning—you do not want to be late to our next meeting or you could miss out on the yummy goodies.

We endeavor to provide a comfortable environment in which artists can learn and benefit from each other's skills, knowledge, and methods.

Attending our meetings is a great way to meet fellow artists – plus you can bring a painting or two and have a friendly critique of your art work. This makes for a great learning experience! Monthly demos are given by some of the best Portland area artists and should not be missed. Questions are encouraged during the demos. They are a great learning experience.

Classes and Workshops

In addition to the FREE demos given at our monthly meetings we also provide educational workshops throughout the year with a reduced tuition to NCAG members.

Locations to be announced prior to event. See our calendar here
