Workshop Show & Tell
Bring your project to the next meeting to share with the group. It's fun to see how everyone interprets the same information!

Thanks to everyone who came to the August meeting on the 13th! August is the favorite month for vacations, so I'm very pleased at the turnout. Our Treasurer, Diana Strom, interrupted her vacation so she could be with us!

We were happy to have a demo from Rodger King, of his work with collages. He will be hosting a workshop in September, and I hope many people will attend. He was an entertaining speaker, and I'm sure his workshop will be a blast! He will bring some of his own materials to share, but if you have a box of saved cards and calendars, bits and pieces for inspiration, or scrapbook ideas, bring them along.

Seven of us were able to enjoy a day at the Portland Art Museum on July 30, including a short & sweet train ride to downtown. The hardest part was finding a place to park in Milwaukie. I hope we can go again. If anyone wants to see the 1900 Paris exhibit, I recommend it highly, and suggest you take the train! Let us know if you see another exhibit the group might like to visit.

Enjoy the rest of the summer, catch up on painting projects, and we'll see you at the September 10 meeting!

Betty Kellogg
NCAG President

Revolving Art—Why show your art

The Guild looks for opportunities to show our members' art. If you have a public facility and would enjoy fine art on your walls, we will work with you to provide art on a rotating schedule.

Please contact: Rita Townley (503) 659-7662
reetstownley@msn.com

Our members currently show regularly at the following locations:

- Oak Lodge Water Services District
14496 SE River Rd, Oak Grove, OR 97267
(14-16 paintings)
- Gladstone DMV
10 82nd Dr, Gladstone, OR 97027
(5 paintings)

Beyond any benefit you might see as an artist the act of viewing art can have its own impact. According to the rubinmuseum.org, It is believed across all traditions of Tibetan Buddhism that the act of viewing artworks can be advantageous to one's spiritual and physical wellbeing.
