

NCAG is a 501.c.3 Non-Profit Dedicated to the appreciation and understanding of the arts, the encouragement of new artists, and promotion of art interests throughout the community. Donations are tax deductible.

Our goal is to provide a comfortable environment in which artists can learn and benefit from each other's skills, knowledge, and methods.

Welcome All

Attending our meetings is a great way to meet fellow artists – bring a painting or two for a friendly critique. Monthly demos are given by some of the best Portland area artists and make for a great learning experience!

NCAG in the NEWS

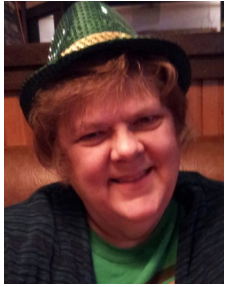

Karl Rousett gave a Workshop on his technique of using wax colored pencils to create some very exacting pieces of art on July 16 at the Saving Grace Church from 10 to 2. The Clackamas Review told his story in their July 7 edition, in an article by Ellen Spitaleri. Thanks Ellen for giving us a boost!

Reviews have been excellent!

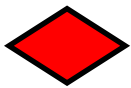

Back row: Paul Boggs, Nina Meade, Pam Davis, Joyce Hammond, Chris Everest, Karl Rousett, Char Tritt. Seated: Mike Bays, Sandy Jelinek, Jerry Schmidt, Tiffany Delgado, Jaci Sanks

The COVID WORD

As of July 27 Clackamas County is now at high risk for community spread of COVID-19 according to the CDC.

The CDC advises that people

1. Wear a mask in indoor public spaces
2. Stay up-to-date on vaccines
3. If you are symptomatic, stay home and get tested

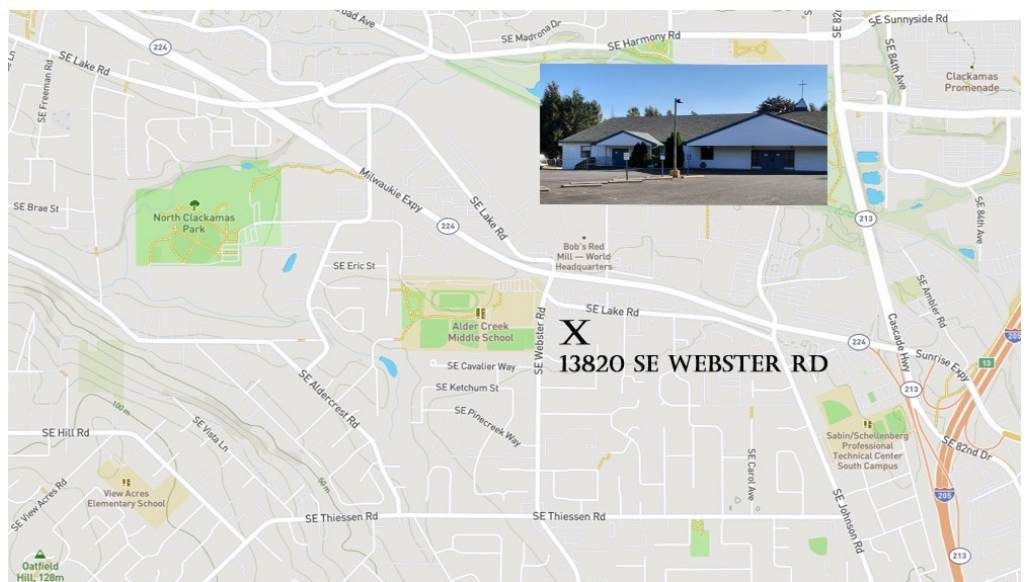

What happened to July? With such a long, rainy June seems like we are all cramming in two months worth of sunny, outside activities into four weeks should it change back to less desirable weather. Your Guild has been experiencing the same thing as we stretch our legs after the covid lockdown...so much we want to do!

While our exhibit at the Made in Milwaukie store is coming to an end, artists be sure to pick up your paintings from Wednesday July 27th to Saturday the 30th. We are now set up to display and sell our paintings at the Mocha Express at 14813 SE Webster Rd, Milwaukie. Stop in for an ice cream or iced drink and see our new venue for selling our work. THE COLORED PENCIL WORKSHOP was a huge success this month with 14 participates. Everyone learned so much from the class and it brought in the most money any workshop has for our Guild. A BIG, THANK YOU TO KARL! OUR ART SALE is our next big event on Sunday, July 31st, at the Goodwill Store on 172nd and Sunnyside Rd. We have 7 canopies and 17 participants; hopefully, we will sell some paintings and find some new members.

For those of you not at the picnic, it was announced several of us will be meeting to update and possibly, slightly reconfigure our website in an effort to find away to make it easier to find on the internet. We are also working towards creating a new, once a month, evening zoom meeting option that's in addition to our in-person afternoon monthly meeting in an effort to meet the needs of those artists in our community that work or go to school, but would like to be a part of our Guild. It will have an added advantage for our older members who for some reason not able to make it to our in-person meeting or for those who have moved away and still want to be connected with us, as well as help to attract some younger members. Perhaps after we get it going, we can figure out away to record our amazingly, interesting demos and make that available to our evening zoom members as well. Until then, as we work behind the scenes, get those brushes out and show us what you can do in this heat wave!

Next Meeting is at Saving Grace Church, from 11:00am to 2:00pm

Mocha Express hosts NCAG Art

Come see our Guild artworks on display at 14813 SE Webster Road, Milwaukie, Oregon 97267. Stacia is ready to serve some excellent coffee or tea, a sandwich or ice cream treat. Call Connie Emmons or Pam Davis if you are interested in getting one of your paintings on the wall!

Seasonal In-House Competitions—seasonal theme not required.

Fall Competition — October 11 meeting

Winter Competition — December 13 meeting, at Annual Christmas party

Please let Char know if you have any suggestions for new themes for these seasonal events. You can paint what you wish. Any additional themes are merely suggestions.

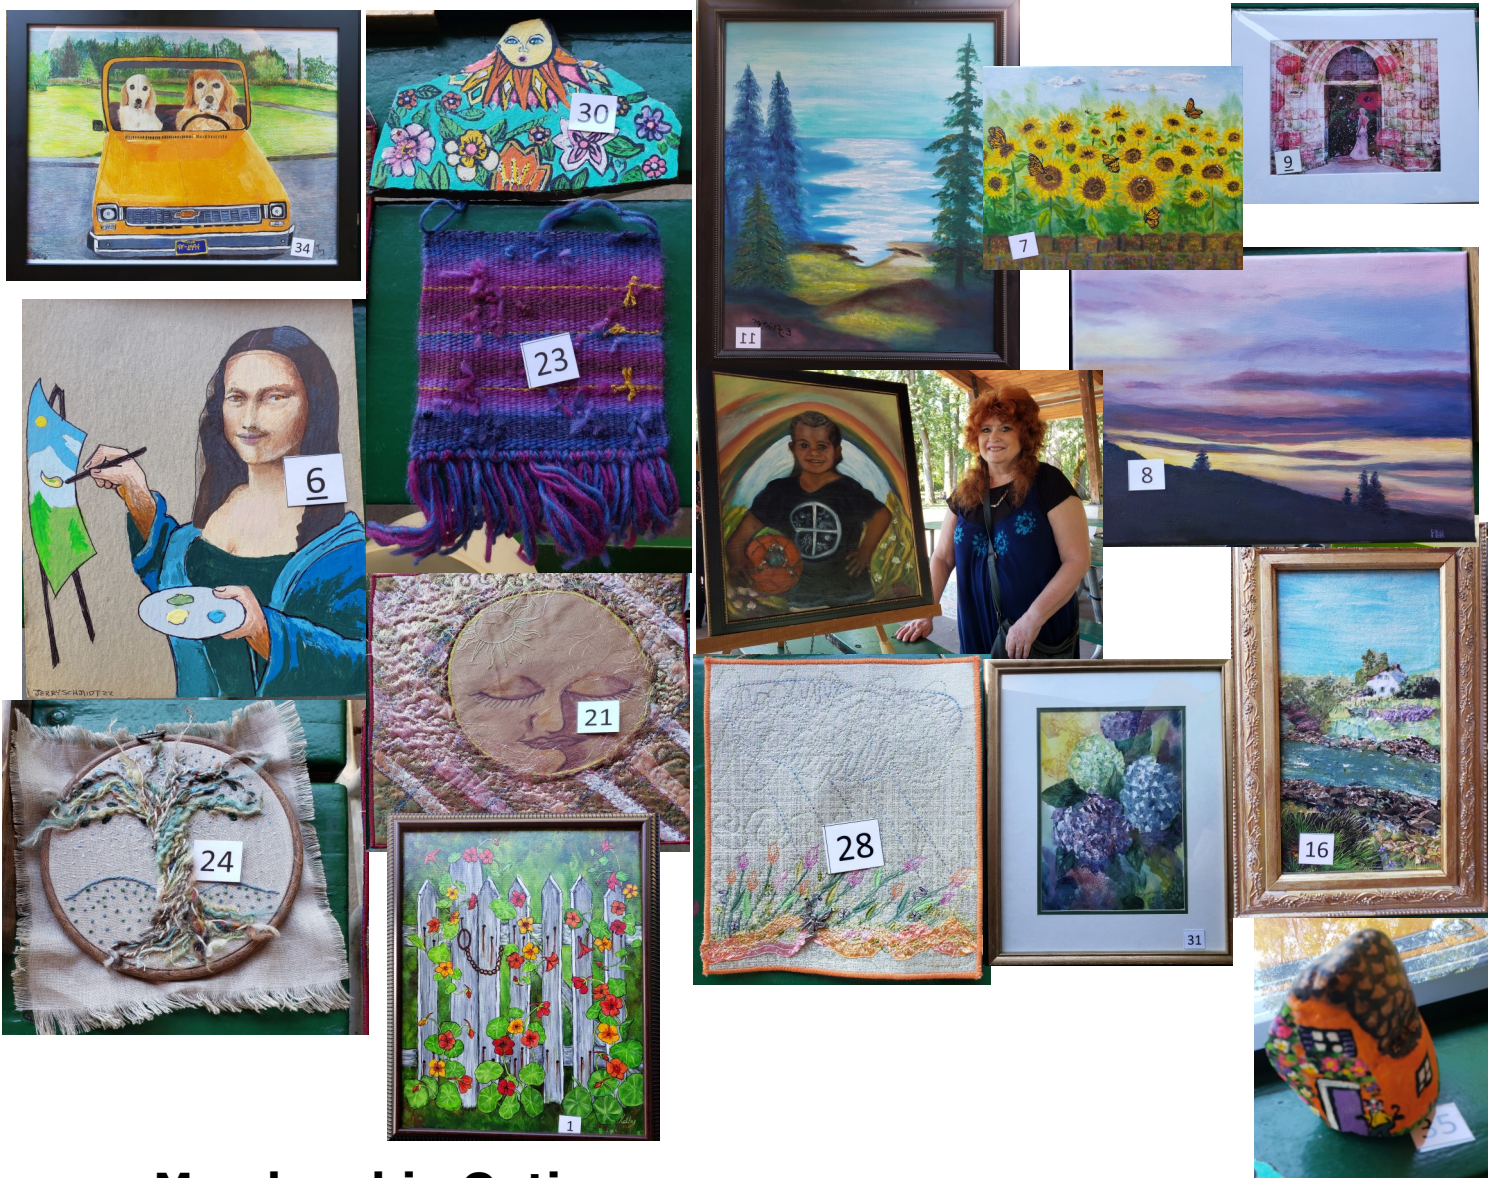

Summer competition winners at left. Paul Boggs at first place, Patti Nelson at second, and third place to Rita Townley.

Donate to the Guild by Shopping! Amazon Smile will donate small amounts of money with each purchase we make logging in through Amazon Smile! They donate 05% per $1.00 purchased online in this manner. It does not cost you to donate, since the money comes from Amazon. Several members have sampled this and found that it does work, pennies here and dollars there! Thanks Amazon!

CRITIQUES—No critiques were offered at the summer meeting, and the photos provided on this page reflect the many entries in the Summer Competition.

Revolving Art— Show your art

The Guild looks for opportunities to show our members' art. Contact us if you know of a location where you would like us to arrange a Guild show.

Please contact: Connie Emmons , or Pam Davis. Our members currently show regularly at the following locations:

- Oak Lodge Water Services District (14-16 paintings)
- Gladstone DMV (5 paintings)

We are currently looking for new places to display our art. Stay tuned.

Tell all of your friends, post on your personal Social Media pages, and come to the art sale on July 31, 2022! This will be more of a sale than a show, as no ribbons will be awarded. This is going to be a one-day effort, and if a painting sells, the buyer will expect to take it home that day.

We will have information about the Guild and hope to attract some new members for our August 9 meeting.

Come to support this important Guild event.

Watch KGW TV (8) on the local news for a great promotional story about our sale, featuring new TV personalities Pam and Connie. Our members have been doing a great job in opening new promotion venues! This may play again in the local news at different times during the weekend, even in the wee hours of the morning. Our members have been doing a great job in opening new promotion venues!

Future Workshops

October 20, 2022—Watercolor, taught by Barbara Seliner

Future Demos

August 9, 2022—Unique oil painting style of Douglas Hunt. See his website at doughuntart.com.

Doug Hunt describes his painting style as “soft, comfortable, colorful, textural and maybe romantically whimsical. .” He uses Shiva Paintstik, which is an oil medium, which he will demonstrate for us.

Please let Char Tritt know if you have a special Workshop you would like to teach or participate in during the next few months.
